TOP COMMIE IN FRANCE IS HELD IN JAIL

BULLETIN

Paris, (P) — The public prosecutor today ordered an immediate inquiry into the affairs of Jacques Duclos, imprisoned top French Communist leader, and others "to see whether they should be prosecuted for plotting against the state's internal security."

Paris, (P) — Jacques Duclos, France's top communist, today was charged with carrying a gun during a bloody demonstration against Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway and was jailed to await trial.

Interior Minister Charles Brune declared the government had uncovered proof of an "organized and permanent conspiracy by the Communist troops" against the French State during last night's clashes. One Communist was killed and 17 badly hurt, and 300 police injured in Paris. Twenty-five more persons were injured at Nice.

Nine hundred or more communists were arrested here and in (Turn to Page Nine)

YORK COUNTY BANKERS ACQUITTED BY JURY

Harrisburg, (P) — A Federal grand jury acquitted two York County men of charges of misapplying $51,000 of funds of the York Haven State Bank last night after hearing almost four weeks of testimony.

The verdict cleared James Stanley Wallace, the bank's former cashier, of charges of misapplication of the funds and Joseph R. Mauro, a Manchester used car dealer and depositor, of aiding and abetting Wallace.

The jury of seven women and five men was out nearly six hours before announcing its verdict.

Cornell Is Stirred by Fake Broadcast That European Cities Had Been Bombed

ITHACA, N. Y. (P) — Ten masked youths overpowered three students at the Cornell University radio station last night and broadcast a fake bulletin that European cities had been bombed and an air armada was approaching North America.

A university official said the incident looked like a "practical joke."

The station WYER was flooded with telephone calls after the broadcast. Some callers asked more information but many "called just to rib us," the station manager reported, and there appeared to be no widespread alarm.

R. J. McCarthy, Cornell supervisor of safety, said none of the raiders was recognized in their halloween masks. He said they "probably were students."

The raiders interrupted a musical broadcast at 10:07 p. m. EST and were in control for eight minutes, McCarthy said.

They tied up two announcers with ropes and held a girl engineer in a chair.

Stewart Bennett of the Bronx, student manager of the station, said the "listening audience was large" at that hour, but added that most listeners quickly realized the bulletin was false.

Ithaca police said they had received no queries. The station can be heard only faintly beyond the campus area.

The station issued an immediate retraction and repeated it at close intervals for nine hours.

NAMED BY SYNOD

Delegates to the Pittsburgh Synod meeting in Erie approved a $744,324 budget for 1953 at the closing session last night and named a long list of directors and trustees for the various boards and agencies of the denomination. Included among these were the Rev. E. K. Rogers, pastor of First Lutheran church, elected trustee for three years of the Bethesda Home; Charles W. Cable, Warren, director of the Synodical Board of American Missions for three years.

IS-GUEST SPEAKER

Dr. A. B. McCormick, retired Presbyterian minister, will be guest preacher at 11:00 a. m. Sunday in Bethel Evangelical United Brethren church.

Machinists' Union Threatens Strike At Struthers-Wells

In advance of a meeting at 1:30 p. m. today with officials of the Struthers-Wells Company, members of Local Union 1328, International Association of Machinists, AFL, said they did not expect an agreement would be reached which would avoid a strike called for midnight Saturday.

They said this afternoon's meeting was called primarily to set up an orderly procedure for the strike.

The union, recognized as the bargaining agent for workers in the big plant, has asked for contract changes and a substantial increase in pay. They have had no increase, they said, since December of 1950.

Struthers-Wells officials said no statement would be forthcoming from them at this time.

Local 1328 includes approximately 400 Struthers-Wells employees, excepting foremen. Two other AFL units, the Timekeepers' Union and the Retirees' Union, also function there.

Robert C. Long is president of the machinists' local, George Schreckengost is chairman of the shop committee, James Lytle is secretary, Joseph Bonavita is financial secretary, and James Smith is treasurer.

CLARION TRAGEDY

Clarion, (P) — An auto killed William B. Sloan, 11, of R. D. 1, Clarion, as he was bicycling on Route 66 a mile south of Clarion last night. The driver was absolved of blame.

By The Associated Press

The sound and fury of the Taft-Eisenhower duel for Republican presidential nomination today were echoing today in places like Alabama, South Dakota and Washington, D. C.

With Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio just about through campaigning and Gen. Dwight Eisenhower expected home in a few days, the Associated Press tabulation of pre-convention delegate strength now shows:

Taft 405, Eisenhower 355. Nomination at the July 7 national convention in Chicago requires 604 delegate votes. The Associated Press tally is based on concessions, pledges, instructions and avowed preferences.

Taft backers claimed 10 votes as the Alabama GOP convention met in Birmingham to complete the delegation by picking four at-large members. Eisenhower people conceded Taft a majority—meaning Taft's name would be placed first in nomination since Alabama heads the alphabetical roll call.

An Associated Press survey showed today that South Dakota's daily newspaper editors look for a Taft-Eisenhower photo finish in the state's June 3 primary.

The editors' estimates, weighted according to population of areas covered, give Taft a slight edge: 51.2 per cent to Eisenhower's 48.8.

The primary is the last clearest contest between Taft and Eisenhower before the convention. It is a winner-take-all proposition with 14 Republican and eight Democratic delegates at stake.

On the Democratic side, the editors put a delegate state pledged to Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee ahead of one for Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota. The percentage: Kefauver, 55.6, Humphrey 44.4.

BULLETINS

Harrisburg, (P) — An advisory committee has suggested enlarging eating facilities, dormitory space and commercial exhibit areas at the Pennsylvania State Fair Show.

Bethlehem, Pa. (P) — Four Lehigh University students, arrested during a party raid on the Moravian College for Women last Sunday have been suspended from school.

Washington, (P) — The Senate has overwhelmingly passed a $670,000,000 foreign aid bill but the Mutual Security Program is almost sure to be cut further before any money actually becomes available.

Munsan, Korea (P) — The chief United Nations truce delegate today accused the Communists of blocking a Korean armistice out of disappointment that so few Red war prisoners want to go home.

Washington, (P) — The Senate Banking Committee voted 6-to-3 today to keep the Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC) in business as the government's chief lending agency. But it decided to write a number of reforms in the law setting up the RFC.

United Nations, N. Y. (P) — Russia today was expected to give a quick rejection to the West's proposal for a new treaty.

State Parks To Open Friday For Summer With Banner Tourist Season Expected

Harrisburg, (P) — Pennsylvania's 35 state parks open for the summer tomorrow with a banner tourist season forecast.

Walter L. Wirth, director of the State Bureau of Parks, said today advance indications promise the biggest turnout of vacationists in state history.

Although state park facilities are open to camps and picnickers all year, the beach, swimming pools and the year 'round formally open for the summer on Memorial Day.

Indicative of the high interest in the parks this year is the fact that most of the 187 state-owned cabins on state park lands already have been reserved for the entire summer.

Wirth said the cabins are rented for a maximum of two weeks to a single camper at rates ranging from $10 to $12 a week.

Park visitors will find many new improvements at the parks this year, Wirth disclosed. The improvements included new picnic tables, improved camping sites and (Turn to Page Nine)

RED PRISONER KILLED DURING KOJE UPRISING

Koje Island, Korea, (P) — A North Korean Red prisoner was killed and another wounded slightly today when an American guard accidentally fired an automatic rifle into Compound 66 of the United Nations prisoner of war camp No. 1.

A spokesman for the camp commander said the mishap occurred two hours after U. N. troops, wielding bayonets and using tear gas bombs, had broken up a prisoner parade, foiled a Red attempt to cut a new gate in an inner barbed wire fence and torn down the POW's ramshackle command post and dispensary.

Camp officers said no shots were fired by the troops who had entered the compound earlier.

The accidental shooting came when U. N. guards were changing places tonight in a high watchtower at the rear of the compound. The automatic weapon sprayed bullets into the middle of the compound.

The Reds began parading this afternoon in the compound where 2,700 officers and 650 enlisted orderlies are held.

At least 100 U. N. and British infantrymen entered the enclosure shortly after the orders of Col. Taylor, deputy commander of the United Nations Koje Island prison camp.

They broke up the demonstration with tear gas bombs and drove the Reds into the center of the compound.

The Reds apparently staged the disturbance in an attempt to force Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner, camp commander, to visit the compound.

Baccalaureate Exercises For 75th High School Class Will Be Held On Sunday Evening

Area Men With 28th Inf. Dock in Gotham

Two transports docking in New York City, to bring nearly 4,000 servicemen home from European stations on rotation, had aboard a number of area men who are members of the famed 28th Infantry Division.

The following are from Warren: Pfc. Donald L. Darling, M/Sgt. Robert Johnson, M/Sgt. Fernando Pace, Sfc. Leonard Constable, Sfc. Robert Gustafson.

From Sheffield: Sgt. William E. Hansen, Cpl. Shelton Lindsey, Pfc. Gene Barner, Pfc. Richard B. Cerni, Pfc. Daniel Lewis, Pfc. Cecil Poole, Pfc. Donald Hanson.

The baccalaureate service for the 75th graduating class of Warren High School will be held at 7:45 p. m. Sunday in First Presbyterian church, the Rev. Edward K. Rogers, First Lutheran pastor, preaching on the theme "What Are You Worth?"

Arranged by the Warren County Ministerial Association, the service will open with the prelude followed by Carroll A. Fowler, followed by the processional hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers." After the scripture reading, the High School A Cappella Choir will sing "Call to Remembrance" by Farrant; the traditional hymn, "I Would Be True," will be sung and prayer will be offered. The choir will sing a second anthem, "Sing and Rejoice" by James, just prior to the sermon, and, at the close of the message, will give the choral benediction "The Lord Bless You and Keep You" by Blutin. Mr. Fowler will play an organ prelude to conclude the service.

On the social side of the senior calendar, the junior-senior prom will be held from 8:30 until 12:30 tonight in the Woman's Club, with Emme Emerson's Orchestra providing the music.

Saturday evening at 6:30 p. m. in the YWCA activities building, the traditional Class Day dinner and program will be enjoyed. Ronald Carlson will be toastmaster for the program, opening with the invocation by Superintendent Carl E. Whipple; group singing led by Carroll A. Fowler; Toast to the Faculty, June Odmark and the faculty response, Robert R. Young; Class History, Dean Vesling; Class Will, Leroy Salerno; Class Poem, Sally Reed; Class Prophecy, Minnie Bonavita and Bud Terry; Alma Mater, sung by the graduates.

Monday's event will be the Class Picnic at Midway Park on Lake Chautauque, seniors will rest up on Tuesday and commencement exercises will be held in the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening.

Payday Is Nearer For P. O. Employees

Washington, (P) — Postai employees are one step closer to being assured their paycheck while Congress argues over a bill to authorize such money.

The Senate yesterday, as the House has previously, approved a stopgap resolution. This will take effect as soon as changes made by a Senate committee and accepted by the Senate are okayed at a Senate-House conference.

The resolution was introduced after Postoffice workers were told there was no money available to pay them. There were two reasons: Regularly appropriated funds for the Postoffice and other departments had run out, and a deficiency appropriation bill was stalled.

RECEIVES DEGREES

At the silver anniversary convocation at Bob Jones University in Greenville, S. C., Wednesday morning, two local students received their degrees of bachelor of arts. Judson V. Hetrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Hetrick, 22 Crescent Park, earned his degree in the School of Arts and Sciences, with a major in English; Lueda Merle Klenck, son of Mrs. Luella Klenck, Warren-Kinzua road, majored in Bible study in the School of Religion.

PROTHONOTARY DIES

Pittsburgh, (P) — A cerebral hemorrhage proved fatal yesterday to Milton E. Church, 50, deputy prothonotary of Allegheny county.

Traditional Programs Will Be Presented In Warren Boro As Well As In Rural Communities

Warren county residents need not leave the confines of the county to find an opportunity, first, to pay homage to the martyred dead on Memorial Day, and to participate in a varied array of events scheduled from this evening until late Sunday over the long weekend.

Under the joint auspices of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Warren's Memorial Day parade will move at 10 a. m. Friday from Fourth avenue over Hickory street to Pennsylvania avenue, east to Elm street, south to Lexington and to War Memorial Field where obsequies honoring the soldier dead will take place before the memorial shaft with the address to be delivered by Rev. Arthur LeCom and assistant pastor of St. Joseph's church. The parade will re-form and return over the same route, to be reviewed at Times Square by the marshal, Charles G. Pearson.

In case of rain, the program will be in the Court House.

The annual field mass for all who are buried in St. Joseph's cemetery will be held in the cemetery at 9 a. m. Memorial Day with Rev. Arthur LeCom, pastor of St. Joseph's church, officiating.

The Fourth Degree members of the Knights of Columbus will be honor guards. In case of rain, the mass will be held in St. Joseph's church.

Business places, federal and state offices, municipal and county offices, and all banks will be closed. The postoffice windows will not be open and there will be no mail delivery but the postoffice lobby will be open from 7 a. m. until 10:30 p. m. as usual. All schools will be closed.

Starting with the annual Junior-Senior prom of the Warren High School at the Woman's Club tonight, numerous group and private social events are planned. For those who love baseball, several games are booked. At 6 p. m. today, on Wilder Field, Warren Business School will play the

Mightiest Barrage Of Year Unleashed By Enemy Big Guns

Seoul, Korea, (P) — Communist big guns turned back an Allied raid with their mightiest barrage of the year Wednesday. It was the same day Red truce negotiators threatened to renew heavy fighting in Korea.

The Communists poured 1,126 rounds of fire on U. S. positions in the 24 hours ended at 6 p. m. Wednesday. That's five times the Reds' normal volume in the present limited action phase of the war.

Half the shells broke up an Allied raid on a three-hill enemy position near Korangpo on the Western Front. Heavy Communist mortar and artillery barrages also pounded two sectors east of the once heavily-contested punchbowl on the Eastern Front.

Intensity of the Red fire didn't match Allied peaks of up to 20,000 rounds in a single day.

The Red artillery barrage near Korangpo forced withdrawal of U. N. troops who had wrecked Communist positions on three hills along the old invasion route to South Korea.

Truman Asks Fund For Atom Expansion

Washington, (P) — President Truman today asked Congress for $3,341,000,000 for a "major further expansion" of atomic production facilities.

The money, in the form of a supplemental appropriation, would go to the Atomic Energy Commission and the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Truman said, in a letter to House Speaker Rayburn, the expansion is necessitated by the fact that "the Soviet Union has shown no disposition to cooperate in an international program for control and regulation of armaments."

Lacking international control of atomic energy, he added, "The national security and the security of the free world demand that we maintain and increase our leadership in this field."

The President asked the funds for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Reserves Seeking Flight of Jets As Celebration Event

At last night's meeting of Flight E of the 9307th Volunteer Air Reserve Squadron, at the American Legion Home, Lt. Gordon Elmquist reported that he is endeavoring to obtain through proper military channels a flight of Air Force jet planes to fly over Warren either July 4 or 5 in connection with the annual celebration planned by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

He also stated that at that time it might be possible to obtain a display of various life-size bomber fuselages such as a B-29, Russian bomber and a German plane. These, he stated, are all mounted on large flat trucks and are part of a regular Air Force display.

Lt. W. C. Lundahl, intelligence officer, gave his regular briefing. The speaker for the evening was reservist Staff Sergeant Kenneth Patchen, just returned from a 21 months' active tour of duty. He told the flight of his experience as an aerial photographer on jet aircraft, and told of the change in the USAF since World War II, the succession of new policies for the old, and the status of a reservist who now returns to service.

The next scheduled meeting is at 8 p. m., June 11, at the American Legion when Capt. Kifer will give a lecture on "Aircraft Propulsion Systems."

OMITTING INSTRUCTION

Announcement is made that there will be no children's instruction at Holy Redeemer church Saturday morning, but the regular period will be resumed on Saturday, June 7.

FIREMEN ARE HOSTS

Sugar Grove firemen have invited their friends to an "open house" at the department's social rooms, Memorial Day, from noon until 4 p. m., that the guests may view the newly decorated quarters and the fire equipment.

AT ST. JOSEPH'S CEMETERY

This evening and tomorrow the regulations regarding parking in St. Joseph's Cemetery will be the same as in past years. Cars are permitted to enter the cemetery to discharge passengers and flowers but must leave immediately and park outside the cemetery. These regulations are necessary owing to the narrow driveways.

MASS AT CEMETERY

The annual mass for all who are buried in St. Joseph's cemetery will be held in the cemetery at 9 a. m., Memorial Day, with Rev. Alfred Bauer, pastor of St. Joseph's church, officiating. The Fourth Degree members of the Knights of Columbus will be honor guards. In case of rain, the mass will be held in St. Joseph's church.

CONSTANT PATROL

Sgt. Donald Holmes, commanding officer of the Warren station of state police, said this morning that beginning today, twenty-four hour patrol of the county highways will be made until Monday morning. There will be police cars on the roads at all times of day and night. He urged motorists to use extreme care over the weekend in anticipation of the heavy holiday traffic.

HEARS ARGUMENTS

Joseph H. Goldstein, of Warren, Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission examiner, Tuesday in the Erie County Courthouse heard arguments by the Bessemer and Lake Erie Railroad Co. for abandoning its Fairview passenger station. Company officials said too few passengers used the station to warrant keeping it in operation. There were no protests at Tuesday's hearing. Goldstein said the PUC will take the matter under advisement.

SPOT FOR HEROES' REST

With something of a shock we have read that Arlington National Cemetery, America's shrine to her fallen soldiers and sailors, is running out of burial space. Within perhaps 20 years, it will no longer be possible to honor the nation's heroes by giving them a resting place in the hallowed green hills overlooking the valley of the Potomac and the city of Washington.

So beautiful is this setting, so entirely suitable is it as a dedicated part of American soil that it does not seem right that we must some day think of burying our honored dead in other less-favored spots.

Yet we must do that, and Memorial Day is a fitting time to talk of it.

Because Washington itself is a shrine containing the most celebrated symbols of our history and our freedom, it is probably wise that any new national burying ground be held close to the capital. For a free people's capital to serve as a mecca is a good thing for their faith in liberty and humanity.

But broad, rolling acres blessed with the rare distinction of the Arlington hills are no longer to be found so close to the capital's heart. The growth of Washington in the past two decades has sprinkled the nearby Maryland and Virginia countryside with homes.

To find land both gently beautiful and quietly serene, one must reach farther out from the sprawling city. South along the widening Potomac are perhaps many spots fitted to serve as the timeless residence of the nation's fallen sons.

One in particular that comes to mind is the Maryland bank of the river in the general neighborhood of historic Mt. Vernon, Virginia, Washington's home and itself a national monument.

Here the river, curving in wide sweeps amid low ranging hills, has surpassing beauty. The green fields and patchworks of woods lend a soft intimacy to the scene. Washington found the glory of this place great, and 200 years have not lessened its charm.

Only the experts can say whether this setting meets the technical requirements of a major burial ground. But if it does, it is hard to imagine a lovelier place to share with Arlington the devotions of a nation as a memorial.

A new green cemetery in this spot might command a view of the expanse of green lawn descending from Washington's mansion to the Potomac. A fine bridge might be built to carry American pilgrims across the river to the Maryland side. And on some grassy knoll especially blessed with the peace of nature, the tomb for the unknown soldier of World War II might be placed.

In such a scene as this, there would be no diminishing of the honored glory in which our soldier and sailor heroes now rest in Arlington.

THERE'LL ALWAYS BE A PLACE TO PARK

Confirmation of the rumor that interests from outside Warren plan construction of a large and modern shopping center on Route 62, alongside North Warren, is indeed a challenge to Warren business establishments.

These shopping centers have sprung up all over the East. The suburban areas of Baltimore and Washington are dotted with them, and business is good. While, in many instances, the centers are built in close proximity to large blocks of new apartments and individual dwelling units, others are come upon in fairly isolated areas.

Why are these shopping centers built? Because adequate parking space is provided for potential customers who are willing to spend their money if they can find a place to park their cars.

It was brought directly to the attention of The Times-Mirror today that plans for a shopping center at North Warren received stimulus from the fact that Warren is faced with a desperate need for parking space. Its backers are so convinced of the importance of parking space that they are prepared to go to great expense in excavating the hills adjacent to Jackson Run and in changing the course of the stream itself in order to provide several acres of ground for shoppers to park, buyers who have been, figuratively speaking, forced to drive out of town to buy the necessities of life.

A still blew up in a Kentucky shack just before federal officers arrived. We'll bet the drinks were on the house.

Price of Liberty

Here And There

Plans for Memorial Day in Warren 65 years ago were outlined in an article in the Weekly Ledger of May 20, 1887, as follows.

"Cover the thousands who sleep far away.

Sleep where their friends cannot find them today.

They who in mountain and hillside and dell

Rest where they wearied, and died where they fell.

Softly the grass blades creep round their repose,

Sweetly above them the wild flower blows.

Zephyrs of freedom fly gently o'er head,

Whispering prayers for the patriot dead.

So in our minds we'll name them come more,

So - - - in our hearts, we'll cover them o'er - - -

Roses and lilies and violets blue,

Bloom in our souls for the brave and the true,

Parent, husband, brother and lover,

Think of those far away heroes of ours,

And cover them over with beautiful flowers."

At a meeting of the Eben N. Ford Post, 336, G. A. R., orders were given to make preparations for the observance of Decoration Day. As years pass, greater interest and affection is felt in honoring this day, so set apart from all other days of the year for this sacred purpose. There is no soldier mustered out and laid to final rest, but whose friends tenderly look forward to this day, to pay devotional tribute to their memory, and with the first sweet blossoms of full spring-time they love to come and linger at the graves, and with fragrance of early blossoms, mingle expressions of friendship and love in grateful memorial to their soldier heroes.

As the first steps in plan for the observance a committee of five comrades has been appointed. Messrs. S. H. Davis, James O. Parmlee, T. O. Slater, R. H. Smith and W. H. Taylor, and a finance committee, Messrs. W. S. Alexander, J. J. Leonhart and E. M. Pierce. The general committee has appointed the following special committees to carry out the work:

Floral - The Woman's Relief Corps.

Committee to assist floral committee - R. H. Smith, S. M. Cogswell, W. C. McCabe, J. R. Russell, John Townley and N. P. Curtis.

On salute - Stacy W. Cogswell, J. M. Regner, John Sweeting and Philip Begler.

On music - C. A. Waters, R. T. Tunstall and W. H. Taylor.

On carriages and bridge - S. A. Davis, L. T. Borchers and T. O. Slater.

On flags - R. H. Smith and John Rowland.

On decorating outlying graves - W. H. Pickett, with power to appoint assistants.

The memorial address will be delivered by the Rev. Ph. Doerr. Company I has accepted an invitation to participate and so has the uniformed K. of P.

Speaking of Warren 65 years ago we note "A baseball team has been organized consisting of the following members: J. F. Hegerty, T. J. Hegerty, Will Hegerty, R. L. Johnson, Will Utter, Rome Reese, W. J. Richards, A. Siefert, Dan O'Hern, and Ambrose Brown. Their first game will be played on Decoration Day and their opponent will be the Jamestown club."

Foreign Aid Cut to Hit U. S., Europe Defense Forces Hard

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Two principal motives are given for the congressional desire to hack a billion dollar or bigger cut off President Truman's proposed $6.9 billion foreign aid program for next year.

The first is a sincere desire to balance the U. S. budget and prevent deficit financing.

The second is a critical reaction to waste by the Department of Defense. The multi-million-dollar losses in building air bases in North Africa and Greenland soured many congressmen. Louisiana Rep. F. Edward Hebert's committee disclosures on bad buying practices by the armed services had their effect.

Mutual Security Administrator W. Averell Harriman, Secretary of State Dean Acheson, Secretary of Defense Robert A. Lovett and their staffs have found only scattered opposition to the idea of the foreign assistance programs.

The size of the final cuts is still undetermined. The Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees agreed on a 12.66 per cent cut on all items, right across the board. The House proposes a 20 per cent cut on European aid only, with a 10 per cent cut on defense support, economic assistance.

The final figure will have to be determined in conference between the two branches of Congress. Then may come further cuts as the bill goes through the appropriations committees.

A few guides on what arms aid costs are given by the office of Military Assistance Director, Brig.-Gen. George H. Olmstead.

On the average, the U. S. contribution to rearming each new European division has been $133 million. Each country furnishes its own men, pays, feeds, uniforms, shelters and furnishes basic equipment.

To equip one fighter-bomber squadron with tactical aircraft costs the U. S. $25 million. Three are needed for each land division. Add this $75 million for air support to the $133 million for a division of ground forces and you get $208 million.

A billion-dollar cut is therefore the equivalent of sacrificing arms for five European divisions.

Another unclassified figure is that it costs $400,000 a day to keep the artillery of one division supplied with ammunition in time of war, with all guns firing. A billion dollars is therefore the equivalent of the reserve ammunition supply of Europe's 25 active divisions for only 100 days.

MEMORIAL DAY

... The day we pause in silent meditation ... as cannon and rifles issue their sharp, penetrating salute ... and sombre, bugled hymns to fallen heroes drift across the nation. A time to remember — and to resolve for the future.

Joe Smith and Fred Jones died taking Hill 73 ... somewhere in Korea ... sometime last year. It was their Big Job in defending Freedom for their families and their nation. But Hill 73 is NOTHING — unless we, who are left behind, give purpose to their deed. Let us resolve now, to take great interest in the business of BEING AMERICANS ... in the future of our government ... to vote (and THINK before we vote) at every election ... to make America stronger, free-er, greater! This is the salute that all the Joes and Freds would prefer us to give them, on this Memorial Day.

Mrs. Walter Pearson acted as toastmistress and introduced Mrs. Paul Reynolds, who read an original poem as a prelude to the presentation of corsages to the teachers. Each teacher was also presented with a small silver pin as a more lasting remembrance of appreciation.

Mrs. Alexander Flick gave a short toast to the teachers and Miss Viola Flowers graciously expressed their thanks.

After several songs led by Mrs. Henry Wyman and accompanied by Mrs. Dwight Sizle, an historical sketch of Johnson school was given by Mrs. Helen Christensen. Writer in Warren To Study Drivers Education Program

Joe Callanan, a writer on the staff of the "Lamp," a publication of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey with headquarters in New York City, and Arnold Eagle, photographer, are in Warren to get material for a story on drivers education. Warren High School and McCaskey High School, in Lancaster, were recommended to the editors of "Lamp" by the Safety Department at The Pennsylvania State College as the outstanding schools on the eastern coast in this field of safety education.

Mr. Callanan and Mr. Eagle will be in Warren until tomorrow, taking pictures of the local students in the driver education course, conferring with James Springer, the instructor, and getting ideas for their story, which will probably appear in the November issue of the "Lamp." The Association of Company Magazine Editors recently voted the "Lamp" the best industrial magazine of the year.

DeLeo Is Eligible For Track In 1953

Because of a misinterpretation of a PIAA ruling, the Warren High School track story carried on Tuesday's sports page of the Times-Mirror contained an error concerning Sam DeLeo.

The statement which read that DeLeo would be ineligible to participate on the track squad next year because of a PIAA ruling, is incorrect. As DeLeo did not start school until the age of seven, he will be 19 years of age before the 1953 season opens, however, the PIAA rule states that any boy who reaches that age before April 1 is eligible to play that season. DeLeo's birth date is March 7, and therefore makes him eligible.

Sam's returning to the squad next season will be a big asset, for he has been outstanding this year in the 440 and in the mile relay. He will make the number of lettermen coming back in '53 total 13.

TO REGISTER GLADE TWP. PUPILS TUESDAY

Children of Glade township who are old enough and are desirous of entering first grade in their respective districts when the new term starts in September will be registered and given a readiness test at the Irvinedale school building next Tuesday, June 3, according to Principal Lillian Hunter.

Those who will be five years and seven months of age by September 1, 1952, are eligible to enter school, providing tests show the required degree of maturity and the ability to do first grade work. No children will be enrolled in the first grade until tested.

Parents are asked to bring the children's birth certificates at the registration time on Tuesday, with vaccination certificates, if they are available.

In order to avoid long waiting periods, parents are asked to adhere as nearly as possible to the following schedule: Last name beginning with letters A through K, 9:00 a. m.; L through Z, 1:00 p. m.

Important Changes Are Announced In Window Hours at the Local Post Office

Effective June 2, 1952, two changes are being made in the window hours at the Warren Post Office. Mailing windows (Parcel Post, Stamps, General Delivery, etc.) will close at 5:30 p. m. instead of 6 o'clock as in the past. Money Order, Postal Savings and Savings Bond windows will open at 9:00 a. m. instead of 8 o'clock.

Careful survey and study of the work-load at these windows and the mailing habits of patrons indicate little justification for the longer hours of service. The slight curtailment should inconvenience no one whereas it will allow for a saving to the Post Office Department and also give the clerks a little more daylight time for their own enjoyment. Stamps are always available through the coin machine in the lobby; scales for light weighing are also provided there and a complete schedule of rates as well as a zoned parcel post map will be posted so that for ordinary mailing the correct postage may be easily determined by the occasional late mailer. The change should also help in the effort to encourage earlier and more frequent mailings, especially by commercial patrons, for better dispatching and speedier deliveries.

The 7:45 a. m. opening of the mail windows, established some time ago for the convenience of the many who must be at work by 8 o'clock, has brought appreciative responses and will be continued. Also it should be noted that two additional collections are now made from the large drop-box on the corner in front of the Post Office, at 8:45 and 8:15 p. m. (Daylight Time), so that mail dropped there gets virtually the same service as if dropped in the lobby slots.

A complete schedule of window hours, effective June 1, 1952, follows:

Mail windows—Open 7:45; close 5:30.

Registry—Open 8:00; close 6:00 p. m.

Money Orders, Postal Savings, Savings Bonds—Open 9:00 a. m.; close 5:00 p. m.

Information (superintendent of mails)—Open 8:00 a. m.; close 5:00 p. m.

All windows close at twelve noon on Saturdays.

The annual election of officers resulted as follows: President, D. C. Levine, Penn Furnace & Iron Co.; vice president, Ray Weber, Deluxe Metal Furniture Co.; secretary and treasurer, Otto Peterson, National Forge & Ordnance Co.

The Changing Landscape

RALPH G. SCHERT, Soil Conservation Service, Warren

Hello folks: For a couple of hours this week, we sort of figured the rains were over, only to find out there was still a lot of moisture left upstairs.

Between showers SCS technicians have been pretty busy. Areas were checked to see whether the ground would support ponds and surveys were completed on farms of George Wilcox, Lander; W. Beyer Africa and Harry White on Follett Run Road; and William Hackman, of Youngsville. This information will be used in designing the ponds so that the cut made will balance the fill needed to build the dike.

Over 1600 feet of diversion terraces were built by the Wilcox Brothers, Ed and George, on their farm at Fairbanks. These diversions were built by farm equipment and are in a field of permanent hay. Another one will be built in the same field later this year.

The wet spring last year and the weather so far this spring has been very discouraging to the corn farmer. These last several years definitely have not been the one "looked for," or real dry, year out of 6 or 8 that he can really get a crop of corn off of these poorly drained fields. With these adverse springs more and more farmers are turning to grassland farming and leaving the corn raising to the man with dry soils and the Corn Belt Farmer. Increasing information on species

Probe of Radio And TV Starts Monday

Washington (AP)—A congressional probe of radio and television programs starts next week, but it won't be broadcast or televised.

Rep. Harris D-Ark., chairman of a House Interstate subcommittee making the investigation, told newsmen today he will not permit telecasting or broadcasting of committee hearings "because the House rules don't allow it."

The radio-TV probe will start Tuesday and will continue through Thursday. Initial witnesses will be members of Congress and interested civic groups and organizations.

and mixtures of grasses and legumes for silage, hay and pasture is being made available by all farm agencies. The Grassland Field Days sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service is doing a big job in educating the farmers of the advantages of grassland farming over a corn, oats, hay rotation on the poorly drained soils that are predominant in this area.

As we go about our ways this Memorial Day it would be well to pause a short time to consider whether we are doing our part, at home, to increase production during this critical time. The requirements for one serviceman is 33 pounds of food a week or about a ton of food per year. Quite an item of production when you consider the millions of people in the Armed Forces that are protecting Our Way of Life. Isn't this worth farming the conservation way, the best we know how, to help boost the yield to meet this increased demand for food, for our own protection.

See you all next week.

The Nice Long Vacation

By William Neubauer

Chapter 10

BUT George wasn't so sure. He knew a great deal more about 'such things than Mr. Thorson did. Now the opposition had some real ammunition to fire at the meeting of the City Council scheduled for late September. It was true that not all of the men had made the grade, but some of them had returned their old ways in Tullitown, stealing an item here, an item there. They had all been returned to prison, but the damage had been done. And now Jane Bancroft had come along to make matters worse. If his memory of her was correct, she was a fighter from the word go. He remembered her own case. Once she had found him, half insane, in the latrine, trying to shoot a bullet into his head with a revolver. "Keep away!" he had screamed at her, but she hadn't. Not hesitating an instant, she had come charging into the latrine, dived, and caught him around the knees.

Yes, a fighter, a fighter from the word go, a person who would allow nothing to stand between her and the thing she wanted to accomplish.

And she had come for him. Paris, Paris, Paris.

He shook his head, feeling afraid suddenly, very uneasy. If she were to make a fuss, the opposition faction would use that against him, too, crying that he was hardly the sort of man to operate such a school. He bakers might run out on him, and then what? He looked up at Mr. Thorson. "Well, we'll see. So far we've managed to keep going and perhaps we'll lick 'em all yet. I'll take a run out to Camp Joy. Might as well have a chat with Forsythe."

"Well, Poppleton, this is a pleasant surprise."

Frederick Forsythe came down the steps of his little cottage and offered him a cordial hand. "How's the work progressing? I didn't forget you over the winter. You have become quite famous since that squib about your work went out all over the country. I didn't find it at all difficult to get a certain amount of money for you. Three thousand dollars, no less."

George stared, and for a moment forgot his "serious" problem. He pumped Frederick Forsythe's hand enthusiastically. "By thunder, now we'll be able to expand. We'll even be able to get some much needed machinery. I don't know how to thank you."

"No thanks necessary," Mr. Forsythe smiled. "I'm glad to do this together, in one way or another. Oh, and about that recreation business I discussed with Mr. Thorson yesterday—"

George, feeling ashamed of himself, glanced off toward the lake. "I don't know that it would be a good idea. Some of the men are pretty rough. And to tell you the truth, I can't risk any more incidents."

"There won't be any incidents," Mr. Forsythe took him by the arm and led him along a dirt path toward Officers' Row. "I have a very competent young lady working for us this year as recreation director. I'm quite certain she will know how to handle your students. As a matter of fact, this was her idea. I told her about your work one day and she promptly volunteered to give her day off to the cause of helping your students to become better persons."

"She did?"

George didn't laugh hollowly, but he would have had he been alone. Already he could see his worst fears being confirmed.

Mr. Forsythe clapped him heartily on the shoulder and George, covered he was before a tent and that in the opened flaps of the tent was a girl, a lovely girl with curly, brunette hair and soft, shining brown eyes. "Miss Bancroft," he heard Mr. Forsythe say as from afar, "this is Mr. George Poppleton. George, this is the girl who, I'm sure, will deal very nicely with your students."

Jane inclined her head gravely. "How do you do, Miss Bancroft."

Mr. Forsythe turned, after a glance at his watch. "Well, you two talk it over. Come back to the office when you're through, George, and I'll give you the check."

and white is white. But how nonsensical! Very often the end justifies the means."

EVELYN, her face pale, rose to her feet. She was so angry she quivered. But when she spoke her tone was steady. "All week long I've been trying to decide what to do. I'm not a tattletale. But on the other hand, I'm not a girl who can condone such behavior. I won't live with you any more."

"As you choose," Jane hitched up her slacks. "Do I move out or do you?"

It caught Evelyn completely by surprise. She had hoped that somehow she could bring Jane Bancroft to her senses. But this! She sat down shaking her head. "You haven't a shred of decency in you, have you? You live for your own pleasure. You're always with me or with his wife or with anyone who stands in your way or tries to bring you to your senses."

But Jane, being human, could endure just so much. "I think I should remind you, Evelyn, that I'm not asking you to leave. I'm asking something that doesn't concern you. But if you wish to tell Mr. Forsythe, you may, and if you wish to move out of the tent you may do that, too. As for the rest—well, to be perfectly blunt, I am not interested."

Headless of the girl's outcry of rage, she turned and struck off along a path that led up toward a little hill that gave one a grand view of the vast purple and flame lake. Here, where Evelyn couldn't see her, she gave expression to the anger which had been smoldering in her heart since she had seen George Poppleton again. She didn't bother to wipe away the tears, either. A long time ago she had discovered it was wiser to let them flow unchecked. When she reached the summit at last and sat down, she had the view she

Jane smiled as the old man, his hair very straight, went nimbly up the path.

"I notice you don't limp any more. As a matter of fact, you look rather well."

He swung his right leg. "Oh, it wasn't much. I was an awful cry-baby, wasn't I?"

"Not so bad." She sat down on the top step of the little flight of stairs that led up to the tent platform.

"I'm married, you know."

She nodded, her smile fading. "So you were good enough to write. It was very polite of you to remind me."

"Happily married. I should add. But I shall never forget the future you made that day when you dived into the latrine and prevented me from killing myself."

"To tell you the truth, if I'd stopped to think about the danger I'd have let you put a bullet into my skull. How is your wife? There wasn't that asked very nicely? One would never suspect. I'm sure, that I hate her, that I want her dead."

"Jane!"

She came down the steps, standing very close to him. Her scent came to his nostrils. Carnation. Paris suddenly seemed very near.

"I'm married," he said again, his face suddenly wet with perspiration. "You understand that all the past is forgotten, I'm sure."

"You poor child," she said softly. "That doesn't mean, darling, that you must stay married to her forever."

"Jane," he said frantically, "listen to me..."

But she had waited long enough. She had waited for five long, dreary years. She stepped forward and her arms went around his neck. And her lips found his. Life and the glory of life, warmth, joy, her heart thudded, and when his arms tightened about her, she cried out, cried out in sheer ecstasy. "You see? You see?"

There was another cry then, a cry of horror. "Jane! Mr. Poppleton!" Evelyn Moore, her eyes wide, stared at them from the path that led up from the beach to Officers' Row.

THE WORKS OF CHRIST

CHRIST WALKS ON THE WATER

And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away. And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray; and when evening was come, he was there alone.

But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves; for the wind was contrary. And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea. And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried for fear. But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid. And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water. And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus. But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased. Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

St. Matthew 14: 22-23.

NEW GRID CHIEF
Fred Bell, former Penn State griddier, is the newly-elected football coach at Warren, Pa., High School.

Through The Wind Tunnel

We took a peek in at the Woman's Club last night to see how the decorating was coming along for tonight's Junior-Senior Prom and to make it short, it was "terrific." Under the guidance of juniors Joann Saghbena, Nancy Cannon and Gayle Mitchell, the committee has done a wonderful job in working out its theme. We won't say a word more, you'll just have to wait until you get there.

If you want to know how to "shave" music, just ask Fay Christensen. She may also tell you about a little step of prevention she is going to take at Y-Tech Camp this year.

For those who want to see some good baseball this weekend, there will be plenty of it. The Ludlow Wildcats open their campaign Memorial Day and will play again on Sunday, and the Jamestown Falcons will be host to Olean both Friday and Saturday.

It was a long wait for the bus last night, but it was worth it. At least John Stachowiak thought so, for the "bride to be" is a long way from Warren. We had the pleasure of meeting her sometime ago and will look forward to having her with us in Warren come next fall.

Incidentally, our new football coach for next season, Fred Bell, is looking for a home in Warren. If anyone feels they can accommodate him in any way, let us know and we will make the contact or give you his address in Bellefonte. He will be bringing with him his wife, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eranus W. Cederlof of Sheffield, and their daughter, Deborah Dean.

We had the good fortune to meet Bell in State College. He is one grand fellow and we know it will be a pleasure having him in Warren.

Now that the YMCA tennis court is open, here is the chance for some of the rustier members to put on a little shine.

SNEAD AGAINST FIELD

AFTER TWO DECADES a track and field team was reorganized in Youngsville High School this year, under the coaching of Charles Paul, and participated in three practices meets with Warren and Corry and the District and State meets. The members of the team were, left to right, front row, Frank Baran, Don Weaver, Larry Peterson, William Morgan, Bill Oehlenschlaeger, Keith Allen, and Dennis Engstrom; second row, seated, Don Artico, Ron Putnam, Dick Wood, Dave Pierson, George Smith, John Luther, and Larry Long; standing in rear, Joe McCollough, Bud McCollough, John Albright, Coach Charles Paul, Tom Colbert, Stu Bailey, Don Munson, Leland McChesney, Neil Meabon, Gordon Fitzgerald, Gib Sanford, Ken Dininny, Howard Patch, Dallas Haight, and Bill Wimer.

Although this year's squad had to start from scratch, after a lapse since 1932, they made a fine showing, entering six men in the state Class B meet, and have several fine prospects for 1953. Of the eight men who received the coveted "Y" this year, only Pierson, Don Munson, Wimer, manager, Sanford, and Patch are seniors, while Wood, Smith and Fitzgerald are only sophomores. With the latter three Coach Paul has his nucleus for the coming year and has already made tentative plans for two triangular meets that would likely include Warren, Titusville, Oil City, Corry, and Mercer.

Leo Declares Mays Only Player With DiMaggio Ability

Brooklyn (P)—Leo Durocher was discussing one of his favorite subjects on the New York Giants bench—Willie Mays.

"We're going to miss Say-Hey! Willie a lot," the Giant manager was saying. "More than most people realize I'd say we're going to miss him as much if not more than we do the big guy."

By "the big guy" Durocher meant Monte Irvin, who has been out with a broken ankle. Mays played his last game yesterday before entering the armed forces.

"That kid is the greatest young ball player I have ever seen Bar none," Leo continued. "He is the only one that I know of who has a chance to be as great as Joe DiMaggio. Willie has the five essentials to be a truly great player. He can run, he has a great arm, he is a tremendous outfielder, he is a good hitter and he has lots of power."

Dizzy Dean, sitting nearby, nodded in agreement. "This kid does more things than Moore did," he said. "For that matter, Mays has the greatest arm I ever saw, greater than DiMag. He is faster than DiMag, too."

Gavilan Is Credited With TKO Over Pruden

Indianapolis (P)—Fitzie Pruden of Toronto, Canada, today had found welterweight champ Kid Gavilan considerably tougher the second time around and Indianapolis promoters had been reminded a fight doesn't draw crowds here on 500-mile race week.

The Indiana Athletic Commission physician stopped the bout last night after the fifth round. The non-title bout was scheduled for 10 rounds.

Pruden, who had lost a split decision to Gavilan in Milwaukee 14 months ago, was smeared with blood and tottering. It went into the books as a sixth round knock-out.

A crowd of 7,200 about half filled the Indiana State Fairgrounds coliseum. The gate grossed $28,293.88 for a net of $21,220.41. Gavilan weighed 150½ to Pruden's 150.

Willard's Record Is Probably Unbreakable

Indianapolis (P)—Motorists and motorcycleists massing outside Indianapolis Motor Speedway gates today killed time debating: Can anybody match Lee Willard's record-breaking 1951 speed in tomorrow's 500-mile Memorial Day auto race?

Old-timers who had seen a dozen or so of the past 35 "500's" doubted that Willard's 126.244 mile-an-hour average will be equalled.

This year's 33-car field averaged about two miles an hour faster than the '51 field in qualifications. Weather and wrecks may cut the speed far below the cars' potential.

POSTPONED GAME

Last night's postponed Sunset League game between the Warren Business College and the Youngsville Merchants will be played at 6 p. m. this evening at Wilder Field.

Kinzua To Play At Hospital Saturday

A baseball attraction that promises to be a sizzler has been arranged for the Warren State Hospital diamond Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when the revived and rejuvenated Kinzua Warriors will furnish the opposition for the Main-Rockwell team.

According to reports a team has been organized at Kinzua that promises to recall the days when players like the Manns and the Sheldons put that village on the map with their baseball prowess.

The word has drifted down from Kinzua that the boys going to the State Hospital Saturday are determined to "stiffen" the Jamestown aggregation, and a fast and exciting game reminiscent of the days of 25 years ago is anticipated.

Mike Solok will be the umpire in chief.

American Golfers In Prestwick Triumphs

By TOM OCHILTREE

Prestwick, Scotland (P)—Defending Champion Dick Chapman was knocked out of the British amateur golf championship in a stunning upset today but U. S. Amateur king Billy Maxwell, Walker Cup player Jimmy McHale, Frankie Strafaci and Harvie Ward carried America's colors into the sixth round with victories.

Chapman, 41-year-old socialite from Pinehurst, N. C., was blasted out of the running by Maj. David Blair, 35-year-old Scotsman, 3 and 2. Maxwell, of Odessa, Tex., eliminated Don Cameron, another Scot, 2 and 1; McHale, of Philadelphia, ousted Minty Miller, a Glasgow football player who had beaten three Americans earlier, 5 and 4.

Strafaci, curly-haired New Yorker, nipped Jimmy Wilson, a Scottish Walker Cup member, 1 up on the 20th hole and Ward, of Tarboro, N. C., routed Andrew Whyte of Scotland, 5 and 4.

BOOSTERS TO MEET

Youngsville Sports Boosters will meet in the high school at 8 o'clock this evening to discuss whether or not to purchase the Crowther tackling and blocking dummy demonstrated at the organization's last meeting. It would be for the use of the YHS football squad.

Rod Eaken, of Reading, Pa., No. 1 player on the Penn State golf team, is a former Pennsylvania schoolboy champion.

Local Loblaw Nine Beats Franklin, 19-9

In the Loblaw Store Inter-City League, last night, the Warren nine put 19 runs across the plate on 13 hits for their first victory of the season over Franklin.

To acquire their 19-9 win the locals turned in a 10-run rally the second inning to make up the entire margin, and got all 13 hits that same frame. Sheldon and Moirine were the big stickmen with three for three, the former smacking two double suckers. Briggs was the winning pitcher for Warren.

This Sunday afternoon Warren plays host to Corry on Beatty Field.

Hornell Wins But Falcons Eye Lead

By The Associated Press
The Hornell Dodgers snapped back at Wellsville last night to maintain their lead in the Class D PONY Baseball League and staved off a Jamestown bid for a first place tie.

The Dodgers avenged two successive defeats by the Rockets by beating Wellsville, 7 to 3, in a game dotted with 22 hits, only two of them for extra bases. Hornell had 10 hits, Wells, 12.

Jamestown Pitcher Ron Schuett shut out Batavia, 3 to 0. Corning edged Olean, 2 to 1. Rain forced postponement of the Hamilton at Batavia game.

SHEDS DIRT, STAYS WHITE!
Du Pont House Paint cleans itself!
Your house stays dazzling white for years when it's painted with Du Pont House Paint! This unique blend of pigments and oils actually sheds dirt. It cleans itself! A fine white powder forms under normal exposure to sun and weather. Then, when it rains, dirt and grime are washed away! However, excessive soot or heavy shade or stains from metal surfaces, such as copper screening, may interfere with or delay this process.
Beautify your home with the paint that's made right to stay bright. Ask your Du Pont dealer about "Self-Cleaning" Du Pont House Paint in Outside White or popular tints.

Our tribute to Valor

On Memorial Day we see before us an endless panorama of mighty conflicts on many far flung battlefields: Shiloh, Gettysburg, San Juan Hill, Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel, Guadalcanal, the Great European Invasion of World War II. In all these places and many more, on land and sea and in the skies, Americans have fought heroically for their country.

It is fitting that we remember and honor this vast and gallant company—both the living and the dead—on Memorial Day.
